Dear Sir:

Responding to your inquiry of the 12th, I take pleasure in handing you a circular regarding our Society, this one being intended to emphasize the medal side of our field.

The annual dues are five dollars, as you will see from the accompanying application blank. It is customary for us to ask that references accompany an application.

We should be very glad to greet you at our Museum at any time.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:

Your card of application for Associate Membership is at hand. Thank you very much indeed. Won't you kindly give me the names of two references who know of your interest in numismatics? There will be plenty of time for you to do this before the card can be presented at the next meeting of our Council, which takes place on the 9th of January.

Regretting that I did not suggest your doing this when I sent you the card, I beg to subscribe myself,

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:

As we have not heard from you since informing you that you were elected an Associate Member of the Society, I am wondering whether your attention was caught by the statement that we must receive your acceptance within a month after the notification, or whether by some chance our letter of notification never reached your hands. We should very much like to hear from you.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
